Spring Hill is a community unlike any other as my four years here are full of memories that I will cherish forever, from prank wars and debates to my brother surprising Rachel and I by coming back from Qatar to see us graduate. I am proud to call SHC my Alma Mater knowing that I have received a true liberal arts education with many challenges and shipwrecks.

I really enjoyed my time at Spring Hill. I'm going to miss everything about the hill but mostly everyone from there. Commencement felt great after four long years of hard work and lots of learning.

... Here at Spring Hill we've been taught how to be great individuals. We're taught to think for ourselves, how to work outside of the box, and how to come up with our own opinions, not just follow someone else's. At the same time though, we're part of something much more. ... As we move into new places and meet new people, we're bringing some of this Jesuit education and the values with us. Those are part of your acorn; use them. Be the leaders we've been taught to be. I know every single one of you is capable of it. Don't just be a silent partner; be a proactive, loud, and listened-to "Badger Tree." ...

Our little oak has gone through a lot in the four years we've been here. It has been a theme of constant construction here ever since we stepped foot on campus. We've gotten the Burke Library and Father Lucey's palace, Nan Altmayer Place. There've been renovations to dorms in Mobile and Walsh Halls. We've got our Skip's Place and even New Hall. I see this as our oak growing new branches. Yeah, it can be a pain sometimes avoiding the areas where you really should have a hard hat, but it lets us have more acorns and better ones at that. We've got the teachers too that make us great acorns and even better people. They give us a model to work toward and goals to achieve. ...

We've all become well-rounded individuals with the experiences we've had here. ... We've enjoyed ourselves by playing intramural sports with the competitiveness, or bonding in the freshmen halls listening to my fellow graduates who had formed an impromptu rap group. We've had spring break trips, Mardi Gras break trips, hurricane break trips, and immersion trips. Bonding through a mutual hate of the University of Mobile during Badger Brawl or jumping around in Bounce Houses, we've become the people Spring Hill needs us to be.

So to sum it all up, make the best of your time. We've got a great coffee shop just across the street whose title should be the inspiration to motivate you for the rest of your lives. Carpe Diem, which means "Seize the Day" for those of you who haven't seen "The Dead Poets Society." But, remember that and be the best acorns and future oaks you can be. Like the oaks on this avenue come together to form a beautiful grove, we can do the same. Don't forget who you are as you move on in life, a Spring Hill College alumni. And also don't forget where you came from – a tree. Thank you. You've been amazing!

A photograph of a diverse group of students cheering and clapping at what appears to be a school event or competition. In the foreground, a young man with glasses and a grey t-shirt is looking upwards. Behind him, another student wears a white baseball cap with '112' on it. The background is filled with many other students, some wearing purple shirts and others in various colors, all appearing to be in a celebratory mood.
